

Canton / Cobbs Corner

Fifteen miles southwest of Boston is the picturesque New England town of Canton.

Blending suburban tranquility with easy highway access to Boston and Providence, Canton is an ideal community for both families and young professionals.

Known for its excellent public schools and rich history, Canton boasts close proximity to ample outdoor recreation opportunities.

The expansive Blue Hills Reservation is nearby, beckoning hikers to its dozens of trails and scenic views. In the winter, the Blue Hills Ski Area is popular among families and beginner skiers.

Canton is also home to significant landmarks. Enter Canton by driving under the historic Canton Viaduct, one of the two oldest surviving multiple arch stone railroad bridges still in active use in the country. Visit the Paul Revere Heritage Site to tour the nation's first copper rolling mill. Or, stop by the David Tilden House, one of the oldest houses in America which has stood in Canton for 300 years. To coffee enthusiasts, you'll enjoy knowing that Canton is where Dunkin' Donuts is headquartered.

With its charming residential neighborhoods and historic charm, Canton perfectly combines small-town living with proximity to major metropolitan areas.
